

Catarrh of Throat Relieved Gives Peruna the Credit.

MISS AMALIE RUZICKA, PRAGUE, OKLAHOMA.
Her Neglected Cold Caused Serious Illness.

PRAGUE, OKLAHOMA:—"I have suffered with catarrh of the throat. I caught cold and it settled in my throat, and I coughed badly and was very weak. I could not sleep and had no appetite. I had two doctors, and had taken so many different medicines and found no help. I thought, I will try Peruna. Those who object to liquid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets. MUSIC STUDENTS PRESENT PROGRAM

Excellence of Training at High School Shown When 325 Pupils Take Part in Performance.

The work of the music department of the high school under the direction of Miss Fern A. Parker, showed up to advantage in the mid year concert given Friday evening in the high school auditorium. The audience which attended the affair was large considering the weather and accorded to the students the appreciation which their excellent work deserved.

The boys and girls, 325 in number, made a splendid appearance on the stage and responded as one to Miss Parker's excellent direction. The choral numbers were pleasantly varied with a selection by a boys' quartet, a reading by Miss Helen Sherman, vocal numbers by Lisle Kreighbaum and M. H. Willing, assistant superintendent of schools, two selections by the girls' Glee club and several numbers by the high school orchestra. Another delightful feature was the selection "Inflammatus et Accensus" from Rossini's "Stabat Mater," sung by Miss Zola Montgomery and the chorus.

The chorus has six parts, well coordinated for a high school organization. There are 114 first sopranos; 62 second sopranos; 43 first altos; 11 alto tenors; four tenors and 40 bass voices. Miss Parker has been supervisor of the music department only since fall and her control over so large an organization achieved in that short time is remarkable.

All the choral numbers were difficult and were rendered with spirit and apparent understanding. Perhaps the best of the selections was the last, an adaptation of the Miserere chorus from "Il Trovatore." The opening number was an adaptation of the sextette from "Lucia" and the other choral numbers were all of the type mentioned by Miss Montgomery in company with the chorus, were "Olay Trivasson" by Greig and "Happy and Light of Heart" from the "Bohemian Girl" by Balfe.

The girls' Glee club of 50 voices is the first organization of the kind for the high school and the selections which it rendered last evening were charming, both songs, "Silent Now the Drowsy Bird" by Offenbach and "Rosses Everywhere" by Denza being well adapted to the girls' voices.

"Kylie at Sea" was the quartet number which was greatly enjoyed. It was sung by Robert Swint, Lloyd Colp, Lisle Kreighbaum, William Stein, Fred Whitcomb, Robert Buchner and Mr. Wells. Mr. Kreighbaum's solo was the "Song of Hyacinths," the "Cretan" by Elliott. He has a pleasing bass voice and his performance was very good.

Miss Sherman, who has appeared frequently before South Bend audiences and is always greatly enjoyed, read the renunciation scene from the "Lion and the Mouse." Mr. Willing's delightful number was "The Pipes of Pan" by Elgar and the encore with which he graciously responded was the beautiful little "Banjo Song."

The high school orchestra of 12 pieces rendered two pleasing numbers from Maratona by Wallace.

Ray George Tallender, 10 1-2 pounds, was born in Cassopolis, Mich., Jan. 23. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray G. Tallender, 698 Rush st., this city.

HONEST OFFICIALS IS CRYING NEED OF DAY

Detective Owen W. Wiard in Address at Y. M. C. A. Says This is Only Remedy for Cleanup of Conditions.

The time is not far distant when every city in the union will elect honest and upright officials to guide the destinies of its activities, was the prediction made Friday night at the Y. M. C. A. by Detective Owen W. Wiard of Chicago in an address on detective work. It is the only possible solution he asserted for the saloon, brothel and gambling den problems.

Thrilling detective adventures of the apprehension of the "black hand" that terrorized the nation a few years ago, were told by Wiard. His subject for the evening was "The Capture of the Black Hand" and he held his audience under a continual spell while he told of the daring maneuvers taken by officials in subduing the organized black hand bands and putting the leaders in prisons.

Sunday night he will talk to an assembly at the high school when Mayor Keller will preside and nine of the down town churches will close their regular services to attend. B. F. Augustine, president of the board of public safety, will have charge of the music at the session and other city officials will be in attendance. His subject will be "Cleansing a City."

Newspapers he said originated the term "black hand" as a word best fitting the crimes and threats made by the organized bands that especially worked under secret Italian society leadership. Children, he pointed out, too often try to imitate the daring adventures of the black hand and many times we find them trying to conduct similar bands.

He urged that more discretion be used in selecting proper literature for the children. In regard to social evils he asserted that any law ever passed can be enforced if proper men are elected to executive offices. Detective Wiard has played a large part in routing the social evil from many of the eastern cities and told of his experience in gathering data and evidence. He played the ponies, gambled and used many other means in doing it. The detective was formerly a preacher in an eastern city where he began an effort to better its moral conditions. Later he became a detective. Saturday night he will talk at a rabbit supper at the Y. M. C. A.

PAY ONLY SEVEN PERCENT

Profits of American Sugar Refining Co. Are Falling Off.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Due to increased competition the difference in profits of the American Sugar Refining Co. in 1913 when they reached their zenith, and 1914 when they were at their lowest point, was $6,300,000, equal to a year's dividend at seven per cent.

This statement was made by Edward F. Atkins, chairman of the directors in the hearing of the government suit today through cross examination by his counsel, Frank L. Crawford, in an effort to show his company was no longer a monopoly.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Thousands of commuters were late reaching their homes tonight owing to a fire in the union depot, which caused great excitement and $10,000 damage.

OBJECT TO OPENING BOOKS TO COMMISSION

President of Armour Car Lines May be Cited for Contempt of Court.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Chas. McChord, a member of the interstate commerce commission, left Chicago at noon Friday for Washington, and J. P. Farrell, solicitor for the commission, started for Chicago.

Commissioner McChord has been conducting a hearing in the investigation of the operation of private cars and the rates charged for shipments in private cars of different companies. It was understood that the commissioner went to Washington to confer with the department of justice officials and that Farrell was on his way here to ask that a federal judge cite Frederick W. Ellis, president of the Armour Car Lines for contempt of his refusal to give information to the commissioner.

Representatives of Swift & Co., headed by A. R. Fay, vice president of the Swift Refrigerator Transportation company Friday expressed willingness to furnish the commission with all the information it seeks regarding the operation of private cars.

HAMLIN CHOICE? WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—High authority in the treasury department predicted Charles H. Hamlin, now assistant secretary as the most probable successor to John Skelton Williams, appointed comptroller of the currency.

GABY'S COMPANIONS:

Gaby Deslys always travels with two little marmosets. A marmoset is known to the French by the charming name of quistiti and is a very small monkey. But save for its monkey face, it has all the appearance of a drowned rat. It makes constant chattering noises and seems most alert and most interested in everything that goes on around it. Gaby's marmosets are known as Teddy and Fifi, and were given to her by Harry Plesier, her dancing partner. Teddy is of fair size but has an evil disposition which seems to be shared by Fifi, but she is so very tiny and so very frail, that she can do very little damage. Coming over on the Mauretina, the little animals created almost as much attention as Gaby herself.

MISS BARRYMORE.

The sale of seats for Ethel Barrymore's engagement at the Oliver will open at the box office Saturday morning. Already many mail orders have been received and the indications are that Miss Barrymore will be greeted by as large an audience as she has always played to in South Bend. She has been a great favorite here for years and her visit is one of the events in theatrical circles. Her play "Tante" is said to be one of the best vehicles in which she has ever starred. She has an excellent supporting company and Mr. Frohman has provided an exquisite scenic environment for the production.

"OFFICER DONOVAN."

A good show is on for today at the Auditorium and includes "Officer Donovan," a sensational picture in two reels; "The Antique Brooch" in two reels with Marc MacDermott and Miriam Nesbitt in the leading roles, and "The Upward Way" in two reels, a story of Daniel in the Lion's Den, will be the feature, with "Telltale Stains," a sensational drama; "A Motor Cycle Elopement" and "Kelley's Skeleton," two screaming comedies.

Monday the second edition of "The Adventures of Kathlyn" will be given. This production is said to have cost Selig about $140,000. In next week's picture 40 lions are being reeled loose in the amphitheater where Kathlyn is awaiting her fate. The beasts, sure of their prey advance with catlike steps to the horror-stricken heroine, and other pictures for Monday are "The Girl in the Middy," a comedy; "The Squire's Mistake," a western play, and "Dian's Dress Reform," also a comedy.

"THE MASK."

This is a very commendable film. Its theme is essentially dramatic, being that in which a man leads a double life. It possesses the Jekyll and Hyde, a double personality by virtue, however, not of transforming his entire body, but only the muscles of his face. This is carried away with first rate effect by the actor playing the rascal. At the denouement, as he is about to marry the heroine, he loses control of the muscles of his face and his real character is revealed. The film will carry wherever it is shown. Phillip Smalley and Lois Weber play the leading parts in this film, which will be shown at the Surprise theater today.

SPANISH TENOR WINS IN SUIT FOR DAMAGE

Jury Holds Constantino Never Promised to Marry Chorus Girl.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Florence Constantino, the Spanish grand opera tenor, has won the breach of promise action for $100,000 damages brought against him by Marcelle Montabatt, the diminutive chorus girl. A jury in the supreme court decided today that Constantino never promised to marry her.

Miss Montabatt told the jury how she met the tenor in a Boston street and how he had promised to make her an artist "and the wife of the great Constantino." She was followed by the defendant, who testified that he never mentioned marriage to her. "She accepted me in the street one day," he explained, "and said she had known me in Paris and that she wanted to go to the opera and hear me sing. I gave her tickets. I almost always give away 50 tickets to friends who want to hear me sing."

Special to the News-Times.

LAPORTE, Jan. 24.—Paul Garver, a Chicago lad of 15 years, employed as bell boy at the Rumely hotel in this city, was given a check for $126 to cash this afternoon and a $20 bill to change. He cashed the check, returned to the hotel, changed his uniform for his street suit and disappeared. The police are without a trace of him.

IOWA WOMAN TELLS OTHERS

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Carried Her Safely Through Change of Life.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa.—"At the Change of Life the doctor said I would have to give up my work and take my bed for some time as there was no help for me but to lie still. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and kept up my work and now I am over the Change and that is all I took. It was better for me than all the doctor's medicines I tried. Many people have no faith in patent medicines but I know this is good."—Mrs. E. J. RICKETS, 354 8th Avenue, West, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.
